

The scotia beading would need to be removed prior to installation to facilitate the proposed new taped or whipped stair runner