CARPETS

Dear Customer,

IMPORTANT: New Price List dated 7th June 2021

Please find enclosed our latest price list. As you will see, we have kept the increases to the minimum, which is 3%.

It is 20 months since our last modest increase, but regrettably the sharp increase in the price of the higher quality of raw materials that go into every Adam carpet means that we cannot hold the current prices any longer.

Over the last year, we have continued to keep all our people employed and where possible agreed long-term contracts with suppliers in order to maintain the quality and availability of products which you, our customers, tell us that you expect of us.

With our return to full time working in April, we are now developing new products and investing in our highly skilled people and in the flexibility of our factory. We are well-placed for the future to continue to manufacture to the highest standards and continue to offer the latest trends in carpet colour and design.

At the Harrogate Show in September, we will be showing our most recent product developments, so please come along and see us at the usual stand C69 in Hall C if you are visiting the show.

Thank you for your continuing support of Adam Carpets.

Yours sincerely,
