NOTES

Notes for section A)

Prices above are DDP to trade premises on the UK Mainland where the order value exceeds £ 1.200, excluding VAT (See below for pricing surcharges below £ 1.200)

Prices are in UK £'s Sterling

All prices are subject to UK VAT.

Full Roll Orders

- Roll price only applies to full roll shipments. Stock roll lengths can vary between 25-35 linear meters. Please consult for exact roll lengths in current stock.

- Where a full roll is purchased but the overall quantity is requested for supply in cut lengths, a cutting/wrapping surcharge of £15.00/cut will apply.

Cut Length Orders

- All orders below £ 1.200 have a UK transport surcharge of £75,00.

- All cut lengths under 10m² have an additional surcharge of £35,00/piece.

- Orders in 2.00 m width will be accepted up to 7,5 linear metres. For orders in excess of 7.50 linear metres x 2.00m wide up to 10 l.m. there will be a 15% surcharge.

- Carpet requested in a circular shape is subject to cutting charge of £8.00/cut. If an edge finish is needed we do not recommend our Panama for circular carpets.

- Carpets can be supplied to custom shapes and sizing. Please enquire for pricing and availability.

(1) This price includes the finishing with borders made of the same material

All business is published terms and conditions. Please ensure that end users are advised of Rols Carpets terms and conditions of sale prior to purchase. The full document, setting out our terms and conditions of business, is available from our website or can be sent upon request.

1. PRICELIST GENERAL INFORMATION

- 1.1 This price list is effective from February 1st, 2023. All previous price lists are now cancelled and are no longer valid.
- 1.2 Prices are quoted in UK £'s Sterling.
- 1.3 Prices contained in this price list are exclusive to professional operators engaged in the flooring trade
- 1.4 All prices quoted are subject to UK VAT.
- 1.5 Rols Carpets reserves the rights to amend or to update this price list without prior notification.

2. SIZES AND TOLERANCES

- 2.1 All stock carpets are supplied subject to a tolerance of +/-1.25% in both length and width (BS3655). These tolerances must be considered by the customer prior to placement of an order.
- 2.2 Where specific sizes or roll lengths are requested for non-stocked items (custom made), in either roll goods or area rugs, a tolerance of up to 5% in specific dimensions must be accepted. These tolerances must be considered by the customer prior to placement of an order.
- 2.3 All carpets are manufactured to recognised industry standard tolerances and are tested independently. Full product specification details are available upon request.
- 2.4 Where project specific test data is requested by a customer that is outside our standard test procedures, we reserve the right to charge the applicable testing costs back to the customer in full.

3. SAMPLES

- 3.1 All sampling, literature and merchandising provided to customers remains the property of Rols Carpets, unless paid in full by the customer.
- 3.2 Sampling is provided on the basis that it is used exclusively for the promotion of Rols Carpets products and services and should not be shared with competitor businesses.
- 3.3 Samples should be stored correctly so as to avoid natural light fade of the pile yarns.
- 3.4 Each sample is a guide to the colour and texture of the carpet, however it is understood that variances may exist in colour and texture between a sample and the actual carpet. Where a specific match to a sample is required, we strongly recommend that a stock cutting is requested before ordering.
- 3.5 Unless a sample cutting is specifically requested for approval from current stock, it should be understood that all other forms of samples provided to customers may not be from the current stock batch.

4. STOCK ORDERING AND RESERVATIONS

- 4.1 Customer stock reservations will be valid for 2 working days. Reservations automatically expire after this period. Where a reservation expires, it is the responsibility of the customer to make a new reservation, although Rols Carpets are unable to guarantee continuous stock availability.
- 4.2 Customer orders must be confirmed in writing and in turn will be acknowledged in writing by Rols Carpets by email.
- 4.3 Once a customer order is acknowledged by Rols Carpets, we are unable to accept subsequent cancellation of the order.

5. BESPOKE RUGS

- 5.1 Where a customer requests a special/custom shape, size or finish of bespoke rug, Rols Carpets reserves the right to charge additional costs for the work required. A cost estimate will be provided on all special/custom rugs.
- 5.2 For all special shapes/custom shapes, including but not limited to, circular, oval and ellipse shapes, Rols Carpets requires the customer to provide a full size template, which will need to be sent to the factory by the customer.
- 5.3 Please note that tolerances in dimensions and pattern alignment should be considered on all bespoke sized rugs.

6. TRANSPORT AND DELIVERY (UK Mainland addresses only)

- 6.1 Where the value of a purchase order exceeds £1,200.00 (excluding VAT) the unit prices quoted includes delivery to a UK mainland manned trade, based on our standard delivery service. Orders with a value of less than £1,200.00 will incur a £75.00 +VAT UK delivery surcharge
- 6.2 Delivery is made using a driver only vehicle to the ground floor access point of the specified delivery address. Where access is difficult for large vehicles, we must be advised in advance to avoid delays and imposition of re-delivery charges.
- 6.3 Our UK logistics partner will usually advise the final delivery date directly to our customer upon receipt of the goods into their UK depot. Smaller pieces (under 2.35m maximum length dimension with weight of less than 30 kgs) can be sent via courier; we will provide the customer with tracking information to allow for monitoring of delivery timings on courier deliveries. Additional clearance costs may be charged on courier deliveries - these charges are solely the responsibility of the purchaser in the UK. Whilst we make every effort to provide accurate delivery information, Rols Carpets or their logistics partners cannot be held liable for delays to deliverieschedules, how so ever caused.
- 6.4 Non standard deliveries, such as, but not limited to, dedicated express vehicle services, timed deliveries, construction site direct or deliveries to private addresses are available on specific request, subject to an additional charge.

6.5 At the point of delivery, risk for the safe care of the goods passes from Rols Carpets to the customer (title of goods is not transferred at this point, unless full payment has been received). Before accepting a delivery, it is important that the external packaging of the carpets is carefully inspected for transport damage. Where there is visible transport damage, the delivery note must be endorsed with a clear reference to record such damage and where possible photos should be taken to support any claim. In addition and in order to validate any claim for transport damage, the customer must advise Rols Carpets of any such claim within 1 working day from receipt. Once this period has elapsed, we are unable to accept complaints for transport damage.

6.6 In the case of goods damaged in transport, failure to correctly endorse the delivery note to notify potential damage will invalidate any claim. Where it is not possible to inspect the goods immediately upon receipt to assess any damage, please endorse the delivery note "Unchecked and pending inspection", accompanied by a date and time.

6.7 Rols Carpets are unable to accept the return of goods or provide replacement if points 6.5 and 6.6 have not been followed

7. DESPATCH AND DELIVERY SCHEDULES (UK Mainland addresses only)

7.1 Delivery lead times are quoted as a guide and in good faith at the time of either customer enquiry or order, but it should be understood they are subject to change due to a variety of factors.

7.2 Whilst we endeavour to provide accurate information on despatch and onward delivery schedules, until final inspection of a carpet or rug is completed during the 24 hours prior to despatch, all schedules given are subject to change.

7.3 Goods are shipped to the UK market via a weekly despatch using road freight, which usually departs the factory on a Friday, except in weeks around bank and public holidays where it is subject to change. Where stock is available for immediate despatch, credit account customers have until 15.00 hours (UK time) on the Tuesday before vehicle departure to confirm their order for despatch on the Friday departure.

7.4 As a guide, delivery lead times from ex-factory despatch for UK mainland customers are 7-14 working days, depending on final delivery location.

8. COMPLAINTS AND RETURNS

8.1 Upon receipt of the goods, and prior to cutting or installation, it is important that each piece supplied are inspected by the customer, to ensure what has been supplied is as expected and is free from visible defects. Rols Carpets recommends the carpet is fully unrolled to complete the inspection. This inspection process must be completed within 10 working days from receipt of the goods at the appointed delivery address.

8.2 Where a customer has reason to believe that the goods supplied do not conform to the carpet as ordered, or the material contains visible defects, Rols Carpets must be advised in writing by the customer, either by way of email or letter, indicating the client order number and date of receipt. In acknowledgement, Rols Carpets will confirm receipt of the complaint and make arrangements to view the materials so as to verify or reject the customer complaint.

8.3 No complaint can be either verified or rejected until inspection by Rols Carpets has been completed.

8.4 No complaint will be accepted where goods have been cut prior to the complaint being viewed by Rols Carpets.

8.5 In the event that incorrect or defective goods are installed without prior inspection, Rols Carpets will under no circumstances accept claims for installation/re-installation costs, loss of profit or wasted time.

8.6 Where goods have been supplied by Rols Carpets, which are subsequently adapted by the customer, such as, but not limited to, the application of taped edges to runners or area rugs, the application of chemical treatments to the carpet pile, Rols Carpets will accept no liability for these costs, even in the event that goods are found to be defective.

8.7 The liability of Rols Carpets in the event of a claim, cannot exceed the value of the goods supplied.

8.8 Where it is accepted by Rols Carpets that the goods supplied are incorrect compared to the ordered material or defective, Rols Carpets will arrange for collection and return of pieces for collection and return of pieces at their own cost. The customer must ensure that goods for return are rolled onto a central heavy duty carpet pole/core and wrapped with heavy gauge waterproof packing to ensure the goods are not damaged on or during return.

8.9 Where a customer requests to return first grade goods to Rols Carpets, a restocking charge of 33% plus return transport costs will be charged to the customer account. Any credit or refund due to the customer, will not be processed until the returned goods are re-stocked at the factory and accepted as a first grade return. We are unable to accept the re-stocking of first grade pieces less than 25m².

8.10 Where specific independent tests or site inspections are required to establish a claim for a defective carpet supplied by Rols Carpets, it is agreed that costs of investigating such a claim will be paid in full by the customer where the claim is unsubstantiated.

9. INSTALLATION

9.1 All installation must be carried out in accordance with BS5325: 2001 – Installation of Textile Floorcoverings: Code of practice own production facilities.

9.2 We are unable to accept complaints or claims on products supplied where the carpet is not installed in accordance with BS5325: 2001

10. WARRANTY

10.1 Rols Carpets warrants that their products are manufactured to industry recognised standards.

10.2 Rols Carpets is unable to give a specific assurances as to the longevity of use of their carpets within different locations. All Rols Carpets products are tested and graded for different intensities of use and the customer must ensure the carpet selected is compatible with the intended use.

10.3 The product must be installed in accordance with BS5325:2001

10.4 Where, after post installation inspection, a product is accepted by Rols Carpets as defective or incorrect, within the first 12 months following delivery, the carpet will be replaced like for like by Rols Carpets at no charge to the customer. In these circumstances, Rols Carpets are unable to offer either a monetary refund or credit note unless the product we have agreed to replace is no longer a stocked item.

10.5 Where the customer proceeds with the cutting and installation of a carpet containing clearly visible defects, any claim against Rols Carpets for the costs of a like for like or substitute replacement will be invalidated.

11. PAYMENTS

11.1 Credit account facilities are only available to customers where we are able to obtain an insured credit limit against their business. Where we are unable to obtain an insured credit limit, or the insured line of credit we can obtain is insufficient to cover the value of a transaction, we will request advanced payment prior to despatch of an order.

11.2 Where credit account facilities are extended to a customer, these can be withdrawn without prior notice where credit insurance is cancelled or reduced.

11.3 Where goods are supplied and invoiced on credit account, our payment terms are net 45 days from invoice date.

11.4 We are only able to accept payment by bank transfer (BACS or CHAPS). We are unable to accept other methods of payment.
